Purcari Wineries PLC held its First Edition of the Investor Day

Bucharest, 5th of October 2022

Purcari Wineries Public Company Limited (BVB: WINE) held its first edition of the Investor Day on the 30th of September at Château Purcari, the cradle of its flagship brand, located in the village of Purcari, Ștefan Vodă region, Republic of Moldova.

The event started with a conference with topics such as the company's overview, an operational brief, and a M&A update regarding Purcari Group's most recent acquisition. During the conference, the investors had the opportunity to ask questions and discuss directly with Purcari Wineries' Board of Directors and Senior Management Team.

The Investor Day also included a tour of Purcari's vineyards, historical cellars, and production hall, held by Mr. Victor Bostan and the Management. The investors had the chance to taste Purcari's competitive advantage through exceptional wines such as Academia Purcari, Nocturne, and Negru de Purcari, and the premium wines Gold Chardonnay and Gold Stallion of Angel's Estate, Purcari Group's newest addition.

"The Purcari Wineries Investor Day was an opportunity for us to come closer to our investors, both retail and institutional, but also a chance for the people to go through the Purcari experience. We believe that it was the perfect time for the investors to get acquainted personally not only with our Company but also with the team that stands behind our success. We thank each and every one who was with us during the first edition of Purcari Wineries' Investor Day." – Eugeniu Baltag, IR Manager Purcari Wineries PLC
